

THE SAN LEANDRO HISTORICAL SOCIETY, THE SAN LEANDRO LIBRARY, AND THE SAN LEANDRO
HISTORY MUSEUM PRESENT

THE APOLOGY

This special screening at the Bal Theater features a documentary that investigates an incident in the 1960s in which Alameda County and the City of Hayward dismantled the entire community of Russell City, pushing 1,400 residents out of their homes and off their land – all to claim the 200 acres for an industrial park.

The San Leandro History Museum will feature their traveling exhibit “Redlining and Housing Discrimination in San Leandro” and feature a new interpretive panel on the relationship between redlining and the history of Russell City.

After the screening, please stay for a Q&A with the filmmakers.
